

Jane Cleeve (Managing Director)

BBus MBA ACIS AAIM

Jane brings a wealth of experience in developing systems and processes for organisations, which enables us to confidently deliver well-supported products. She has worked in a variety of industries including venture capital, IT and professional services start-up, not for profit, business services, financial services, commodity processing and marketing, earthmoving and transport, shipping and agricultural industry bodies. With over 15 years of experience working in business she knows the challenges they face in sustaining growth and profitability.

Jane is a Director of The Glennie School and President of Foundation for Australian Agricultural Women. She is a Member of Chartered Secretaries Australia and Accredited Member of Australian Institute of Management. She is a graduating Fellow of the St James Ethics Centre, Vincent Fairfax Fellowship.