

How do I get my sales and marketing teams working together?

MarketNAV provides a system for monthly strategic planning of sales targets that requires input from the marketing, sales and finance departments. It is the combination of marketing channels and the sales equation that makes this teamwork necessary for setting targets.