

Can I report my marketing results?

BusinessNAV applications provide an extensive reporting function both statistical and graphical.

We also make report recommendations for monthly management meetings. The type of reports generated give management simple but meaningful reports that facilitate effective decision making on marketing and cashflow growth.

This is coupled with our End-of-Month checklist, which you are provided with in training.