

What is Gross Cashflow?

The Gross Cashflow is a most important indicator of the gross margin a business is making on its product or service sales. This can impact decisions on products and pricing.